

Town Officials and Leaders of Mount Rainier, Md.

The Mayor—William E. Rider.

"The Fire Laddies." The volunteer fire department is rated as one of the best in the State.

The town clerk and treasurer, Ben R. Sherwood.

Ben Sherwood, Town Clerk and Treasurer; Councilmen J. A. Weiler, Floyd B. Mathias and W. W. James. Mr. James has been a hard worker for the town and is one of the early settlers.

Norman A. Pruitt, Councilman from the First Ward.

The men who made the Mount Rainier annual carnivals famous. Guy Farson, chairman, and Charles Reichelt, treasurer of the committee.

Dr. W. Burton Spire, the local druggist and one of the town's leading citizens.

Fire Marshal Stephen F. Tillman.

Charles J. Peckham, president of the Mt. Rainier Citizens' Association, who is serving his third term of office.

Albert Schroder, Assistant Engineer, and Otto Gerhardt, Engineer of the Fire Department.

The Chief, John Klein.

The Assistant Chief, Louis Hofer, who always sports a smile.

Dr. J. W. Klemm, Secretary of the Fire Department.

A former chief, Julius Reiners, the well known steward at the National Press Club in Washington.

Frank Crown, a former chief and now Superintendent of Machinery for the Fire Department.

Fire Captain M. E. Fabritz.